PICHI RICHI RAILWAY PRESERVATION SOCIETY INC.

Pichi Richi Railway is a working museum run by volunteers with an interest in the preservation and conservation of this stretch of the old narrow-gauge Ghan railway and its carriages and locomotives. Enjoy the scenic railway journeys aboard Heritage trains which operate regularly departing from Quorn and Port Augusta.

The Society encourages all members in their endeavours towards maintaining and enhancing the preservation and conservation of the Ghan Line between Port Augusta and Quorn; promoting a culture of respect and recognition of all members' contributions. PRR supports self-development in a family-friendly environ, where all members can make a valuable contribution, gaining skills and experience and enhancing life-long learning.

Thank you for considering becoming a member of the Pichi Richi Railway Preservation Society. Some of the things you may become involved with include:
