PICHI RICHI RAILWAY

Travel a line that is renowned for its ruggedness. Through deep rock cuttings, over dry stone walls and 19th century bridges, the 40 km track weaves through blue bush flood plains, abandoned settlements and intense landscape formations.

Unique and original, the old Ghan railway line carries restored steam trains, diesels and carriages on a journey of contrasts through South Australia's Outback.

BECOME A VOLUNTEER

Volunteers are involved in all areas of the Society, from its management to car captains, firemen, drivers, ticket and souvenir sales and catering.

Pichi Richi Railway Preservation Society has a policy of encouraging families to participate in activities and many young people are learning that they can make a valuable and enjoyable contribution and gain valuable skills and experience.

Accommodation is provided at Quorn plus there are many social opportunities.

Enquire today with our Membership Officer on (08) 8254 6514.
